Re: *In re: Johnson & Johnson Talcum Powder Products Marketing, Sales Practices and Products Liability Litigation - MDL 2738

This relates to cases listed in Exhibit A (ECF 32743-1) attached to Plaintiffs' letter (ECF 32743).

Dear Magistrate Judge Singh:

I write on behalf of Defendants Johnson & Johnson and LLT Management, LLC, in response to the June 5, 2024, letter (ECF 32743) filed by the McSweeney Langevin firm regarding the inclusion of cases listed in Exhibit A to their letter on the June 3, 2024, list of cases subject to an Order to Show Cause for failure to serve Plaintiff Profile Forms (PPF) (ECF 32601) and the June 3, 2024, PPF Report (ECF 32599). Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a copy of Plaintiffs' letter and list of cases at issue.

It appears most, if not all, of the cases listed in Plaintiffs' Exhibit A failed to file PPFs by the respective deadlines set forth in the Amended Plaintiff's Profile Form Order (ECF 27291). Therefore, the 2018-2019 cases noted in Plaintiffs' Exhibit A were listed for the first time on the April 1, 2024, PPF Report (ECF 30612). Plaintiffs' counsel didn't respond or object. These 2018-2019 cases were again listed on the May 1, 2024, PPF Report (ECF 32127). Again, there was no response or objection from Plaintiffs' counsel.

The 2020 cases noted in Plaintiffs' letter were listed for the first time on the May 1, 2024, PPF Report (ECF 32127). Plaintiffs' counsel did not respond or object to inclusion of those cases on the May PPF Report.

Plaintiffs' letter states the PPFs were filed for their above noted cases, although late. Contrary to the standard, and common sense, practice in this litigation for cases noticed as deficient in serving a PPF, and knowing these cases could be potentially facing an Order to Show Cause, Plaintiffs' counsel did not reach out and tell us that the overdue PPFs were finally filed. Although the Court's Order on adjudication of deficient cases (ECF 29032) required Plaintiffs' counsel to meet and confer with counsel for these Defendants before filing any request for relief with the Court regarding PPF deficiencies, Plaintiffs' counsel failed to abide by that provision in the Court's Order.

Had Defendants been notified at any time before the filing of the June 3rd OTSC, that the deficiency had been corrected, albeit late, the cases would have been removed from Defendants' deficiency list. But now that we know, we will remove the cases and they will not be listed in the final dismissal order to be filed with the Court thirty-five (35) days after the entry of the June 3rd Order to Show Cause.

Plaintiffs' letter requests the Court enter an order requiring a series of actions. Such an order is unnecessary as these cases have now been removed from Defendants' deficiency list and in light of Plaintiffs' counsel's failure to follow the procedures outlined in the Case Management Order.

Thank you for your consideration of these matters.

Respectfully,

/s/ Susan M. Sharko
